

Quiz time

(Questions concerning the lectures on the (psychological) foundations and tools of Business ethics)

Question 1

According to Kohlberg (1984), which are the substages pertaining to preconventional morality?

- a) Good Interpersonal Relationships, and Maintaining the Social Order.
- b) Obedience & Punishment Orientation, and Individualism and Exchange.
- c) Social Contract & Individual Rights, and Universal Principles.
- d) Good Interpersonal Relationships, and Universal Principles.

Question 1 – correct answer

According to Kohlberg (1984), which are the substages pertaining to preconventional morality?

- a) Good Interpersonal Relationships, and Maintaining the Social Order.
- b) Obedience & Punishment Orientation, and Individualism and Exchange.
- c) Social Contract & Individual Rights, and Universal Principles.
- d) Good Interpersonal Relationships, and Universal Principles.

Question 2

In which of the following is System 1 of the dual process model involved in moral judgment making?

- a) The motivated reasoning post moral judgment.
- b) The ability to come up with reasonable justification for a moral judgment.
- c) The automatic processes such as first sight impressions.
- d) The understanding of harmful consequences of actions.

Question 2 – correct answer

In which of the following is System 1 of the dual process model involved in moral judgment making?

- a) The motivated reasoning post moral judgment.
- b) The ability to come up with reasonable justification for a moral judgment.
- c) The automatic processes such as first sight impressions.
- d) The understanding of harmful consequences of actions.

Question 3

Which statement describes the Rationalist Approach to Moral Judgement most appropriately?

- a) Emotions don't have a direct cause to moral judgment.
- b) Emotional ration precedes moral reasoning.
- c) Private reasoning has a small role in moral judgment.
- d) Moral judgment is the result of quick and automatic evaluation.

Question 3 – correct answer

Which statement describes the Rationalist Approach to Moral Judgement most appropriately?

- a) Emotions don't have a direct cause to moral judgment.
- b) Emotional ration precedes moral reasoning.
- c) Private reasoning has a small role in moral judgment.
- d) Moral judgment is the result of quick and automatic evaluation.